

Meet Your Candidate

Alicia Patrick

Alicia Patrick is a licensed realtor in Virginia and Tennessee, born and raised in Bristol, Virginia. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from Radford University and a master's degree in IT from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. A former middle school teacher, Alicia developed strong leadership skills that now fuel her passion for real estate and community service. She is deeply committed to helping people through the home buying and selling process, and her dedication to service has inspired her to pursue a leadership role as a director for BTVAR. With her local knowledge, leadership abilities, and passion for helping others, Alicia is a trusted partner in the real estate industry.
